*Daily ObsessionHOW TO BE A SUMMER GOD*Men's Top Ten Beauty (Part Two)

Last week we brought you the first half of our top 10 men's summer beauty list - all the products that'll move a guy one step closer to being a glowing beach god. Hey, when you're hitting the California sand, you've gotta have that star glow. Below, five more products that'll help you get there. May the facial moisture gods be with you.

6. Astara Activated Sea Mineral Mask When you hear that this line of nature-based products is from Telluride, CO, you might think winter. But you don't need winter-dry skin to reap this line's benefits. One of Astara's biggest draws is its amazing masks, and they're perfect for summer, too. Try the Activated Sea Mineral Mask, to start, which has organic ingredients -- like jojoba, kelp, spirulina, lemon and sugar maple -- that purify and rejuvenate the skin. You can see a result after just one application. Perfect quick fix-it for a guy; even better when used regularly. ($42, astaraskincare.com to buy and for store locations; also at sephora.com)

7. Caudalie Grape Water mist When spritzing your face by the pool, don't use regular water -- that'll dry out your face. Instead, spray a mist containing extracts from the juice of the grapes of the Chateau Smith Haut Lafitte winery in Bordeaux. Doesn't that sound so much better? Also, it works better -- grape polyphenols are proven to be great for your skin, and it moisturizes while it cools you down. ($13, caudalie-usa.com for store locations, or sephora.com)

8. La Prairie Cellular Treatment Body Fragrance Every guy needs a summer fragrance -- this one not only has an alluring, masculine woody scent, but it combines that fragrance with skincare benefits, renewing skin at the cellular level. From that multi-tasking ability to its substantial-feeling cylindrical bottle, this is one ultra-high-end summer treat. ($100, laprairie.com, Neiman Marcus, 9700 Wilshire, Beverly Hills, 310.550.5900, neimanmarcus.com; or Saks Fifth Avenue, 9600 Wilshire, 310.275.4211, saks.com)
