THE LOOK

From the Deep

The mermaid Ariel, of Disney fame, was a bit quick to forsake her watery world. It turns out that it is always better under the sea. As Susan Ciminelli, the founder of the Susan Ciminelli Day Spa, at New York City's Bergdorf Goodman, explains, "The trace minerals and elements found in marine water—and in the seaweed and algae that grow in it—are nourishing and easily absorbed into the skin." Our picks bring the sea's power to you. Clockwise from top left: AHAVA Advanced Mud Masque ($28). YONKA Phyto-Gel Exfoliant body scrub ($40).
